VOL. XXXIX — SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., MAY 19, 1917 — NO. 40

CLEAN-UP DAY IS ANNOUNCED

Tuesday, May 29th You are Urged to Do Your Part

The spring drive against weeds, rubbish and unsightly spots in and about our naturally pretty and attractive city is about to begin. Through the interest and energy of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club the City of Sonoma will have able assistance in promoting a general clean-up campaign in carrying out the mayor'sediet for a a spotless town for our celebration next month. Let us look with pride on Sonoma. She can be made spick and span for our party. By joining hands in this laudable work and putting our shoulders to the wheel we can work wonders and actually make tourists and our neighbors think Sonoma has a city manager or a street cleaning department.

As a matter of fact our back door campaign for gardens has resulted in putting the rear of our homes in pretty good shape and some of our onion-potato lawns under the clothes lines are as thrifty and practical landscape gardening as you would want to see anywhere. If you have a rubbish pile staring you in the face mark it for destruction on Clean-up Day. Make your plans to devote yourself and the energies of all your family to get rid of everything undesirable and unsightly on the day of days. This is the day of specialization and of all the days what sounds better than Clean-up Day.

Let us clean side walks, gutters, streets, walks, yards,etc. and let us devote the entire day to the work remembering that many hands make light work.

Men , women and children are urged to take up the hoe and the broom and the shovel and make a spotless town for the delight of our visitors, and the club will remove all rubbish accumulated. As the notice of time is brief, citizens are urged to spread the news and endeavor to secure the co-operation of their neighbors and friends. Let all put their shoulders to the wheel and aid in the enterprise which has been suggested by the woman's Club.

Let us all work hard on Tuesday and feel the better when our visitors compliment the appearance of the city.

It is especially urged to remove all grass and weeds from vacant lots.

The City Fathers have promised to place garbage cans in the plaza after the clean-up is over that the park may be kept spick and span and so that visitors will see that we have pride in our historic and beautiful surroundings.

The Mission San Francisco de Solano most valued and sacred a possession should receive much attention and a special delegation it is hoped will look after this splendid landmark.

Every individual will have a task and duty to perform on Clean-up Day so make your plans and let us see how Sonoma can look when she wants to look her best. Remember the carnival company is to decorate the town around the plaza and out Napa Street and down Broadway in bunting and streamers but we want the surroundings to be in keeping. Who would put up pretty draperies and clean curtains in a dirty untidy house? Let us set our house in order and with colors flying June 14, 15, 16th we will feel proud of Sonoma from the ground floor up.

Miss Gertrude Breitenbach was entertained by her aunt, Mrs. Kopf, in Santa Rosa over Saturday and Sunday.

REPRESENTATIVE DELEGATION VISITS BLACK POINT BRIDGE

Messrs. James Baines, Tom Baines, R. C. Waller, Frank Goad, Jack Stevens, Frank Sprague and W. L. Murphy went down to Black Point Bridge Tuesday and viewed the bridge and roads adjacent thereto. They found everything progressing in a very satisfactory manner and report that the Highway Commision has a force of men rolling and watering the roads which will be open for traffic June first.

The party crossed the entire length of the bridge and were taken through the operating room where the mechanical process of opening and closing the big span was explained. The Index-Tribune representative gathered the following facts concerning the bridge which will be dedicated June 16th by Governor Stephens.

Total length 1,442 feet, two concrete approach spans on Marin Co. side, 78 ft. 9in. each; bascule lift span 148 ft. 2in. fromcenter line of trunions to center line end floor beam; 1124 ft. of creosoted piletrestle construction on Sonoma County side.

Main operating pier is built in 40 ft. of water; height of pier from foundation to top 82 ft., from foundation to to of bridge, when bridge is open, 224 ft., top of bridge, when open is 185 ft. above mean tide.

Roadway 25 ft. wide in clear, channel for river traffic 120 ft. clear between fenders. Bridge can be opened or closed in three minutes. Two 25 h. p. electric motors used to operate bridge which can also be operated by hand power. Suspended span weighs approximately 800 tons, the counter weight weighing 600 tons.

Contract started March, 1916 and will be completed June 1st, 1917. Contractor is Healey-Tibbits Construction Co. of San Francisco.

Contract price approximately $90,000 and with materials such as cement and concrete brings the total cost slightly above $100,000.

The bascule span was first operated March 31st and worked perfectly.

The bridge is an original design worked out by the California State Highway Commission.

The El Verano-Boyes Springs-Sonoma delegation enjoyed the trip down and some of the party recounted many interesting experiences in regard to the securing of rights of ways through the various properties where the highway is being constructed.

A. W. Foster's generosity in donating the strip through his big ranch and putting the road in shape was recalled.

The completion of the Black Point Cut-off is a matter or pride to the El Verano's Developement Association boosters and they predict a golden era in the history of Sonoma Valley with the opening of the new route of travel and the coming of more and better roads.

Peter Yenni who suffered a stroke of paralysis was brought home from the sanitarium and is much improved.

Mrs. Farrell of the Oaks took the S. P. train for a business trip to the city Thursday.

Miss Mattie Goodman has been down to Livermore on a recent visit to Mrs. Bruce Painter. Mr. Painter is principal of the High School there.

A. Matli, whose restaurant, Louis' in San Francisco is known to all bon vivants has been up in the valley for a short vacation.

Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. Englund and Mrs. Philip Bill will be hostesses to the next Congregational Ladies' Aid meeting. These hospitable ladies can be depended upon to give a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. Jack Walton went down to San Francisco on the first of the week and was pleasantly entertained by relatives.

Mrs. Power, Miss Constance Power and the W. L. Murphys visited the Rose Carnival Saturday last.

ARCHBISHOP CONFIRMS LARGE CLASS

Distinguished Prelate Here Thursday. St. Francis Ceremony Most Impressive.

Archbishop Hanna and Rev. Father Cantwell, vicar-general of San Francisco, officiated at the beautiful confirmation ceremonies at St. Francis Church Thursday afternoon when over sixty children were confirmed. The altars were daintily decorated in pink and white roses with tall lilies on either side and as the blessed candles were lit one by one, it seemed symbolic of the light let into the lives of the young people about to be received into the Catholic faith.

The boys and girls led by the Mother Superior marched into the body of the Church and took their seats along the center aisle. The boys wore the white ribbon emblems on their arms and the girls in their pure white dresses and dainty veils were the personification of sweet innocence and purity

As the organ sounded forth and the voices of the choir sang the hymn of praise, the high church dignataries took their places on the altar and Archbishop Hanna addressed the children, admonishing those about to receive the blessed sacrament, that they were to serve in the Army of the Lord even as the soldier of today and that in the battle of life they could be of great service with the Catholic Church as the guide and inspiration.

The children took up their places at the altar rail and with Rev. J. Dorwell and Mrs. L. H. Green as sponsors received the blessed sacrament of confirmation which was adminnistered by the Archbishop and his assistants.

Mrs. Vallejo Emparan rendered the Tantum Ergo following the beautiful ceremonial.

Leaving the altar rail after having been received into the faith, the children radiantly spiritual and with pride in the Mother Church returned to their seats and listened to a most impressive address by the eloquent Archbishop. It was not the cold technical sermon of a prelate high in the church but a most beautiful, intimate talk which the smallest child grasped and was fraught with an unmistakable appeal to their elders.

"There is no greater responsibility than that of th child" said the Archbishop, "Knowledge of God must be impressed upon them and guidance must be given them."

He admonished the coming soldiers in the battle of life to have strength, courage and temperance and to consecrate their lives to the highest and best ideals so that this world might be better and that they might better be prapared for life beyond the grave

The Archbishop touched on the war and the present cataclysm but said that God in his infinite wisdom would at last reveal the good which is to come out of the present conflict in accordance with the divine ultimate plan.

The following distinguished Catholic clergymen assisted Archbishop Hanna:

Father J. V. Cantwell, secretary to the Archbishop; Fathers Lynch, Harnett, owers, and Bucklin of San Francisco; Fathers Lacey, McCarthy and Galvan from Oakland; Fathers Kiely and O,Rielly from Petaluma; Fathers Cantillion and Farrant from Napa; Father Cassin from Santa Rosa; Father Murphy from Stockton; representatives of the Jesuit and Dominican orders.

Interest Grows in June Celebration

The June celebration of the opening of the Black Point Cut-off is only three weeks off and an intensive advertising campaign for the three big days is now being launched. Already thousands of stickers have gone out inviting visitors here for the celebration and this week 5,000 postal cards will be ready for free distribution. Ring up this office or any of the committee if you want to send along these cards toyour friends personally inviting them to attend.

The racing contigent is now being put in touch with the fine card to be offered at the local track through Joe Ryan who has forwarded posters all over the circuit. The official posters will be out this week and display advertising sent to the leading papers of the surrounding cities.

It is a wonderful boost for Sonoma Valley only circumscribed by funds available, so if you are interested in this phase of the celebration —getting people here by the hundreds—promptly pay whatever amount you donated to the celebration that the committee may feel assured in going ahead with the good work.

The Parade Committee announces the following prizes for the parade.

The Moose have rented the Bullotti building and will fit it up for a ladies rest room during the celebration. Furnishings will be loaned to the Moose by Z. T. Spencer.

The sum of $75 was cleared at the Woman's Club Ball, half of which went to the Parade Committee which is conducting the Queen contest.

Over $1700 has been subscribed by the public spirited citizens of Sonoma Valley for the celebration of the opening of the Black Point Cut-off.

Grape growers and wine makers from every section of the state will gather in San Francisco on Saturday afternoon, May 26th, to attend an important mass meeting to be held in the Asembly Hall of the Phlan Building, 760 Market Street, at 1:30 o'clock.

The object of the meeting is to arrange a plan of campaign and to discuss the advisability of putting an initative measure on the ballot in November, 1918, so that the people of California will be able to choose between prohibition and temperance.

J. Dewer has been in this city for the most of this week tuning pianos. We would urge any one to send him their orders at once to our office. Mr. Dewer is also agent for Sherman Clay and Co. so that any intending purchasers of pianos or player pianos would do well to consult him as he is an experienced factory expert.—Advt.

After a delicious menu Mr. and Mrs. Burmeister took ten of the young people to the movies. They enjoyed the films of the "Gentleman From Indiana" at El Verano Villa and later were taken home by the host and hostess. All voted Harry's party a decided success. Those present were:

Jeanette Mann Ida Saunders, Vida Bruns, Armand Franquelin, Ruth Clement, Harry Burmeister, ter, Edith Crane, Norman Baines, George Gale, Henry Mitchell.

SUFFERER GOES TO ETERNAL REST

Mrs. Calderwood Passes Away After Long Illness...Active Member of Church and Club.

Sophia Calderwood, wife of H. C. Calderwood, succumbed to the stroke of paralysis which she suffered last week and passed away Monday morning. She had long been a sufferer prior to the last fatal illness and for many months was a semi-invalid. Despite her poor health there were times when she rallied and resumed the active work in church and clubs in which she had been so prominent.

Mrs. Calderwood was a very intelligent and energetic member of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club. She suggested the Club's motto "Onward" which was adopted and also chose the club color, red. She was one of the oldest members of the organization. In the Congregational Church she was also prominent and aided Christain work in many ways.

Deceased left one daughter, Gertrude Calderwood to mourn a kind and indulgent parent. Deceased was the second wife of Mr. Calderwood and left considerable property.

The funeral service took place Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the late residence and was largely attended, many beautiful floral offerings being the tribute of old friends.

On Thursday the remains were taken to San Francisco and cremated.

Deceased was a native of Bohemia.

Facts Should be Investigated

PROHIBITIONISTS MAKE CAPITAL OF WAR SITUATION TO PREACH EXTREMES

The Prohibition leaders are attempting to take advantage of the war situation to their own ends, and by indirect means to force total prohibition on the United States. The injustice of this attempt to wipe out the industry in this summary fashion, without even compensating the brewers, is so apparent that we need not dwell upon it.

Without going into the social aspects of the matter, we desire to call your attention to certain features which are of profound interest from the fiscal standpoint. The present revenue of the United States Government from the tax on alcoholic beverages is in round figures $250,000,000, which will be increased very considerably by the Ways and Means Committee of Congress.

The revenue tax on alcoholic beverages would pay the interest on the new war bond issue of $7,000,000,000. In the event of National Prohibition, and the subsequent abolition of the revenue from alcoholic beverages, the deficit would be met by tripling the income tax upon individuals and corporations, and the suggestion which has been made to make the proposed increase in the income tax retroactive, would appear to be absolutely necessary.

This is without taking into consideration the enormous revenue obtained by the States and Municipalities from the retail license fees, which is estimated at over $1000,000,000 a year. In New York State alone the amount obtained from this source is $22,000,000, which constitutes something like one-third of the total revenue of the State from all sources, so that it would be necessary to revise the tax system of the State of New York from top to bottom in order to meet the expense of the State Government.

The immediate effect of National Prohibition would be to create a convulsion in the mercantile world. The capital invested in the liquor industry is in round figures $1,300,000,000. The annual disbursements in the brewing, distilling, wine-growing and allied industries, wholesale and retail, other than that of wages, are over a billion dollars, and the annual disbursements for wages in the same industries are fully $450,000,000. In fact National Prohibition would create an economic disturbance that would reach from one end of the country to the other.

The Prohibitionists are endeavoring to take advantage of the food conservation movement by giving out wildly exaggerated figures as to the amount of raw materials that the brewers and distillers use. They have published an absolutely unsupported statement to the effect that more than 600,000,000 bushels of cereals are used annually. As a matter of fact, the brewers used last year less than 48,000,000 bushels of barley and 19,000,000 bushels of corn and rice, to which should be added 40,000,000 bushels of cereals used by the distillers. This constitutes only about one per cent of all grains produced in the United States.

The principal material which enters into beer is barley, the use of which for human food is infinitesimal. The beer drinker gets as many calories from the barley in his beer as he would get if he took his barley in the form of gruel. Moreover, more that one-third of all the grain used by the brewers is returned to the farmer for cattle food. Brewers' grains are in fact more highly prized than any other grain. Before the war most of the dried brewers' grains went to Germany; now they are being sold to American farmers.

Observe Your Neighbor

In the preachment of thrift, economy and the "speeding up" of production, there is overlooked the percentage of people in the United States who have been doing these things right along and should have been valuable examples to the rest of us had we followed their precepts. The Italian families of America know how to utilize and conserve everything necessary for their well being. They have their back door gardens with the familiar soup vegetables and herbs. They make their wine and often their cheese. Their cellars are well-filled storehouses for the rainy day. Their wood pile is kept replenished. In her kitchen the Italian housewife serves better and cheaper food than the American trained cook ever conceives. Here we see the use of oil, cheese, vegetables, pastes such as macaroni, corn meal, rice and beans. Here the time element is the most valued in the turning out of good food. The expensive habit of opening canned goods, patronizing the delicatessen and the constant serving of steak and chops, rich cakes and digestion-destroying pies is practically unknown. In the Italian kitchen the soup pot is the mainstay and the delicious and nourishing soups with their savory h erbs, greens such as broccoli and like vegetables grown in their gardens, lettuce with healthful olive oil and risotto most appetizing of rice dishes would be a revelation and wonderful example of cookery to some of our kitchen-cabinet domestically scientific American schooled housewives. It is true that much of the housekeeping and domestic science taught in our schools improves the standard and environment of the foreigner's kitchens when brought home to them by their children educated in our modern schools. The primitive may suffer in outward contrast to the luxurious. The unpainted, rafter exposed bare floored living room of our thrifty families may not appeal as does the buffet kitchen of your modern apartment house but when we get down to the heart of things, we know thrift and economy are pulsating through that part of the nation which is not too keen for show. not so concerned with appearances, not so busy with tatting, fads and fashions and it is these unpretentious naturally thrifty people that we may well emulate in war time—yes and all the time.

As to the joy of life, it theirs in full measure. They live within their means and their philosophy of life usually brings them a peaceful, independant old age. What more could we ask?

Other foreigners, too, have sought to teach Americans the lesson of thrift but most pronounced are the Italian people who are among our best citizens and whose children in the schools of the United States rank high in deportment and scholarship.

It is only when the second generation imitates the prodigality of this country that it suffers, and toward this there is a marked tendency. Let the foreigners' children stick fo the tradition of their fathers instead of becoming too imitative and the wealth of this country would increase two fold.

If you are fortunate enough to have an Italian family for a neighbor and want to follow President Wilson's advice observe the thrift and econo- ...ER and industry alongside of you.

JOE LOCK ONE VELLY BIG MAN

(Los Angeles Times).

As a result of one of the most remarkable conferences ever held in Los Angeles, a thirty-day armistice in the tong war which has led to the slaying of forty Chinese in the last two months was effected last night at the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

Mayor Woodman, Chief of Police Butler, Captain of Detectives George Home, Attorneys Earl Rogers and Judson Rush were present at the signing of the armistice.

More than a hundred members of the warring tongs were lined up on either side of the room, each having heavily armed guards on hand in case the death feud that has raged so up and down the Pacific Coast might be resumed in the meeting hall.

MAYOR WITNESSES CONTRACT

There was a tenseness in the proceedings that caused the American member of the conference to breath a sigh of relief when the contract was finally signed and witnesed by Mayor Woodman, several times clashes threatened when the proceedings were on and all present realized that a hostile move from either faction might lead to a hostile shooting.

The armstice only effects Southern California. Tong members in San Francisco, Seattle and Portland have not got to-gether yet and it is stated by leaders of the factions that other killings are anticipated at any time in the northern cities.

It was through the good offices of Joe Lock, a Chinese who is all powerful among his countrymen along the Pacific coast, and who is called "the man of mystery" that the conference was made possible.

NEUTRAL PLEDGE BROKEN

Shortly after the outbreak of the tong war Lock visited Los Angeles and succeded in having the members of the Hop Sing Tong and The Suey Sing Tong agree to make this city neutral territory. On April 15 a a Bing Kong Tong adherent was killed, and the neutrality agreement was off.

Then appeared Joe Lock "the man of mystery". He retained Attorney Earl Rogers to represent the Bing Kong Tong and arranged for the conference of yesterday. The allied tongs were represented by Attorney Judson Rush, and the city by Mayor Woodman and the police officials.

LO THE POOR INDIAN

Old Sears and his squaw who are about the last of the Indians that formerly populated this section in large numbers are locked up in the County jail all because some outlaw gave them liquor and they went on the war path.

They were tried before Judge Small and took their medicine with stoicism even though it meant 30 days in the hotel de Smith instead of the great out-of-doors on the Morris ranch where they make their home.

Despite all effort to make them divulge thename of the culprit who sold boooze to Indians the great Spirit did not move them to tell anything about the source of the evil spirits which steal away Indian's senses but leaves him strangely like the Sphinx when it comes to turning state's evidence.

SPECIAL RATES FOR CELEBRATION ON S. P.

Home Coming Day should be a great feature during the coming celebration, June 14th, 15th, 16th and with this in mind and the attraction of tourists and visitors in general the Southern Pacific railroad has announced a special round trip rate of a fare and a third good until June 18th on all its Sacramento-Calistoga branches, Winters, Sacramento via Benecia, Vallejo and intermediates also San Francisco, Oakland and points intermediate to El Verano.

The resident traffic man, Mr Houston of Santa Rosa is a good booster and will shortly put out some hangers announcing the cheap fare for the big days.

COWBOYS SHIP STOCK TO STOCKTON

The Millerick Brothers have shipped two cars of racing and rodeo stock to Stockton for the five day celebration there in which they will participate. Big prizes have been offered and the stars from the Sonoma outfit include Bill Powers, Ben Scofield, Lagarista Bergetti, Tom Woods, Von Dillon, Amethyst, Sad Sam and the famous bucking cow "Sonoma Bossy".

OPERETTA STORY IS ONE OF CHARM

Ambitious Production "The Isle of Chance" and Beautiful Drills to Mark School Closing

The story of "The Isle of Chance", the fanciful operetta to be produced next Friday and Saturday nights at the Grammar School will be found to be most delightful. Interwoven in the allegorical plot is the good moral—beware of folly—and on "The Isle of Chance" the experiences of poor way-farers and derelicts are charmingly told. Greed, the King of the Isle of Chance (Roy Bill) has a jolly time with the survivors and sailors of the good ship Ease and lots of troubles with On-A-Grouch (John Steiner) and Despair (Donald Prestwood) until they are saved from folly by drinking at the wonderful Spring of Ambition. King Greed's only consoling words are "that's what they all say" and it is brought in with telling and humorous regularity. The Follies (Nancy Griffith, Edith Carriger and Rose McGuire) are the fascinating subjects of the King who lure many of the isle comers to frivolity. Lady Frivolous (Lea Zemina) Simpletus (Gertrude Johannsen) and Lord What's-the-use (L. Foster) have a very narrow escape. The Captain (Ellis Simmons) and his crew are a jolly lot and contribute much to the brightness of the show. The scenery and costumes are high class, the back drop curtain having been loaned by the Redwood City High School.

Miss Emilie Poppe, Mrs. Ralph Hotz and Principal Prestwood have been the capable directors of the operetta.

"The Box of Dolls," a Japanese fantasy with tiny girls setting up in real boxes like in the toy shops and costumes from the land of almond blossoms will be a novel treat.

Among the dolls are Florence Campbell and Josephine Hoover.

The flower dance and drill by the intermediate girls will be beautiful costumed and feature some of the prettiest girls in the school.

"We are going" "That's what they all say".

A TIP FROM AN EXPERT

Messrs St. George and Picetti of the John Breuner company toured Sonoma County Wednesday. Mr. St. George who is the advertising manager of the big furniture firm was very favorably impressed with our town. He suggested however that we reach out for more tourist trade and make the most of our interesting and attractive landmarks. "There is money in tourists" said Mr. St. George. As he is an advertising expert and world wide traveler, we should take his tip.

ROY LYNCH IN ACCIDENT

Roy Lynch, formerly of this place where he was resident manager of the Telephone company, met with a painful accident in Vallejo last week. He is working for the Pacific Gas and Electric company there and while driving a team on some repair work, the horses ran away. He was thrown out and suffered a fractured shoulder.

WHAT UKIAH SAID OF GAME

Fast Sonoma Team Not Fast Enuogh for Ukiah

(UKIAH TIMES)

An eight inning rally is merely another argument for preparedness. Think of all the anguish it would have saved if it had been started in the first inning. Nevertheless the Brownies are to be commended for coming out from behind and beating out a mighty good team, and one that threatened at all times.

Van Dyke pitched one of his best games, but his support during the first was ragged to say the least. This was due perhaps to the abscence of a couple of the regulars which necessitated switching a number of positions, and caused the boys to appear at a disadvantage in the strange surroundings.

Sonoma started out in the first inning as though they were going to do things. Palucci was safe when Caughey let his drive of the first pitched ball get past him into right field, and went to second on a passed ball. Stuermer fanned and Palucci went to third while Andrieux was being retired at first unasisted. With Evans, Sonoma's clean-up man coming up, it looked like a score, but the best he could do to deliver was a long drive into left field foul territory, which Ball pulled down after a hard run.

In the third, after Whitlow had whiffed,, Palucci doubled to left went to third when Steurmer was thrown out at first and scored on Andrieux drive to left. Andrieux stole second and scored when H. Davidson made a bad peg to first of Evans' grounder, Evans going to second on the overthrow and stealing third a moment later. Dresel fanned, retiring the side with two runs to the good.

In the fifth Palucci was safe on Ruddicks wild heave to first and pilfered second and third. Steurmer fanned. Mockler mussed up a tap by Andrieux to second and Palluchi scored. Evans and Dresel each took three punches at the weather and retired. This ended the scoring for Sonoma.

Whitlow, Sonoma's imported heaver, had the Brownies eating out of his hand for the first seven innings with his assortment of floaters, twisters and slants, but in the eighth things happened. Maze poked a single into left and Van Dyke sacrificed. Maze went to third on a passed ball. Ball was safe at first on a fielders choice, in an attempt to get Maze at the plate. Stewart dropped the throw however and the first run was over. Buchanan landed safely at first when Evans dropped the throw, Ball going to third and scoring. Mockler flew out to Evans who heaved the ball in the general direction attempting to double Buchanan who scampered home with the run that tied the score.

The tenth inning caw the end Buchanan was safe at first on a wild throw by the shortstop. H. Davidson flew out to third. Ruddick beat out a dribbling little hit down the first base line, while Buchanan crossed the pan with the winning run Score 4-3.

MY MOTHER'S DAY

'Tis Mother's day and with sweet Nature's sounds
Borne through the open window where I rest
Mingles the fragrance of a pale pink rose
That I, of all Spring's blossoms, love the best;
A rosebush with a thousand beauties crowned
That cling and nestle to the window pane.

Touched by fond memory which its sweetness brings
I see my own dear mother once again
Pressing the earth about its tender roots,
Her face aglow with happiness and pride
So great 'twould seem this home were hers
And she, herself, a youthful happy bride.

A few brief months and her sweet spirit fled,
Even as the roses paled and withered lay.
What pedestal of stone to Memory's name
Could match such monument on Mother's day?

Each year an upward climb to greater height,
Each Spring a greater wealth of blossoms sent
As deeds which grace and beautify the soul—
It seems the emblem of a life well spent.

And so forgive on this sacred day
If from convention's rule I must depart,
And if, in place of flowers fair and white,
Those pale pink roses nestle to my heart.

—NELLIE BELL WILSON.
Kenwood, California.

The McLaren family of Suisun motored over the first of the week and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGill.

CAKE FROM SONO A GIRL?

Soldier Boys Would Like You to Win Prize in Contest. Batchelor, Co. E Writes.

Much interest attaches to the letter received from Wayne Batchelor Co. E, who has written an announcement of a cake contest being conducted by the soldier boys in Butte County.

The contest is in charge of Comstock who is to be one of the judges of the contest which is open to all young ladies resident of California cities who have sent volunteers to U. S. army Sonoma is therefor eligible and mechanic Batchelor writes to say that he hopes some of our good cake bakers will get busy and try to win the prize—a mess of the finest trout ever caught in the streams of Butte and they are to be caught and shipped to the prize girl cake baker by the soldier boys themselves. Address all inquiries to Capt. Comstock, Co. E, Pulga, Butte County, California.

Wayne says the boys gave a dance recently and people came from miles around to attend.

The young soldier's letter reached his mother Sunday and for Mother's Day he enclosed the following poem of Eugene Field.

"GOOD-BYE GOD BLESS YOU".

„I love the words—perhaps because,
When I was leaving mother,
Standing at last in Solemn pause
We looked at one another,
AndI—I saw in Mother's eyes
The love she could not tell me,—
A love eternal as the skies,
Whatever fate befell me;
She put her arms about my neck
And soothed the pain of leaving,
And though her heart was like to break,
She spoke no word of grieving;
She let no tear bedim her eye,
For fear that might distress me,
But, kissing me, she said "Good-Bye"
And asked our God to bless me"

Eddie Codiga, who has served as an efficient clerk at the local office of the Wells-Fargo Company for some time past, has tendered his resignation to the company. After enjoying the remainder of the week in San Francisco Codiga will enter upon his new duties Monday as clerk in the Keig shoe store.—Napa Register.

ATTENDED FUNERAL

Mrs. Chase returned Sunday from San Francisco where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law Harry Chase. Ten months ago she died and since then Mr. Chase was inconsolable as they were a most devoted couple.

Deceased was the son of the late James B. Chase, brother of Malcolm, Samuel, Chase and Mrs. J. B. Walden and the late William, Thomas and Winnie Chase. He left two children, Florence Dabovich and Harry Chase.

The funeral was under the auspices of the Masons.

VINEBURG

Everything looks fair and green around this part of the valley and if old "Jack Frost" does not butt in too hard we will be alright.

The picking and packing of the cherry crop is well under way in this vicinity and a large number of hands are now engaged in the orchards of John Coops and the Lowell Brothers, who are making large shipments to the east and Southern California daily.

A carload of railroad ties, 486 in number, was switched in on Batto's Spur on Wednesday morning, to "tie-up" the road. We think that part of the road was "tied up" years ago but never since.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Batto, their son and daughter left for Colfax on Sunday last where they have rented a cottage for the summer. Mr. Batto, the popular young vice-president of John Batto and Sons has not been enjoying the best of health for some time, was advised by his physicians to make a change of climate He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto who returned home on Wednesday. His host of friends in Sonoma Valley wish him a pleasant vacation and a safe return home.

It is reported that the Box Car Improvement Club will disband as all the members want to enlist and help to defend the honor of Old Glory. That is the kind of a club to be.

Miss Emily Batto and Master Rudolph Anderson of Vineburg received confirmation Thursday last at St. Francis Church, Sonoma.

The Dresel boys motored to Ukiah Sunday for the big base ball game there

Mrs. Weinberger entertained the Rebekahs most lavishly at their last meeting in honor of her birthday. A dinner of several courses was enjoyed and the charming hostess much complimented.

The family of Blas Ruiz were among those who enjoyed the beauty and festivities of the Carnival at Santa Rosa.

Mr. Carl Dependener with his bride (Miss Juanita Lozano) of Auburn, California are visiting his mother Mrs. Dependener at Vineburg.

Miss Valorie Helberg graduates from the Hahnemann Hospital this month with high honors. The family go down to attend the exercises.

WM. DURANT'S FATHER DIES

A telegram was received from Iowa Tuesday by Wm. Durant announcing the death of his father, Wm. Durant Sr. The elder Durant was 86 years of age and a respected resident of Cylinder, Iowa where he was a prosperous farmer. He leaves to mourn him besides a large family, his devoted wife now 84 years of age. There are six sons and six daughters in the Durant family, ten of them having been with the father at his passing.

Wm. Durant of this place is the eldest living son of the family and had not seen his parents for ten years. The Durants are Canadians.

THE TALE OF A SHIRT

If You were a Sport
And if you owned silk shirts
And some one
Copped 'em and wore them
And danced
To a "Jazz" band
With 'em on
And an arm
In your sleeve
Bearing your Initials
Circled a Girl's waist
Would'nt it jar you?
It did jar
George Carpenter
'Cause George
Is there a million
When it comes to
Horses, Fords and Shirts
And he got the
Number of his Shirt
And the Number of the
Guy wearing it
Last Sunday night
George called the
Detective and a "Higher up"
And Pointed out
The Masquerader
Explaining that
The Joy Boy had Appropriated his Suit case and
Was wearing his
Monogramed Lingerie
Constable Murray
Hated to do it
But he Arrested
The Fox-trotter
Peeled off his coat
And there was G. B. C.
On the sleeve as Big
As Barney Frankel's
All Lit Up
Now the shirt was removed
(In gentle phraseology)
And the victim of the
Eagle eyed Detective work
Explained that
George owed him a bill
And he was holding
A Suitcase with Shirts, Diamonds
For Ransom and Wearing the Shirt
Because there was Never Taste
Like Carpenter's Exercised in the Building of a Shirt.
The Story all Came out in the Court
Thursday and the District Attorney
Wanted the Shirt-wearer
Held for Grand Larceny 'Cause he
Had the Suitcase But the "Jedge"
Said No and Dismissed the Case
So George is Out of Luck and the Worst of it is, George Says,
It won't All Come Out in the Wash
Cause its real Monograming George
Should Wear a Monocle in His Eye
But then Someone Might
Take a Shine to that too.
What's the Use of Any Sport in ....
Petaluma Buying Silk Shirts.
Let George Do It.

UKIAH 4, SONOMA 3

It is lamentable to conceive and woeful to conjecture the disaster that fell upon our boys at Ukiah last Sunday. For eight innings it was the best game ever seen in those parts. Fans were held breathless at times by the marvelous defense work of the "Cut-off" boys, when they converted clean hits into fast double plays. In the last part of the eighth, Sonoma seemed to have the game cinched having scored three runs in the early part of the game game which gave them a nice lead. Then Ukiah sluggers came to bat with determination written on their faces.

Arvilla, guarding the third sack, let an easy roller trickle through his fingers. The next batter knocked one at him. About this time, Arvilla began contemplating how he was going to get home to Petaluma that night as he had to work the next day. After a little he seemed to solve the problem for he looked down at his hand and there was the ball. Well, anyway, all hands were safe and no one was out. The next batter walked filling the bases. Another one was knocked at Avilla and it looked like a sure forced out at the plate. But Mr. Avilla said to himself, "Why let up booting when at this stage of the game," and he camly threw the ball toward Stewart, as he thought but he came near hitting a fannette who was sitting behind the wire screen and when she was questioned after the game she said indignantly "I have never met Mr. Avilla."

Then Ralph Evans felt sorry for our third baseman, resolved to shoulder some of the responsibility of being a goat so he threw the pellet a mile over Avilla's head.

All the boys gave a helping hand then and when the smoke cleared up the score was tied. We shouldn't blame Ralph for having a strong arm for he will be a great help to Uncle Sam throwing bombs, "somewhere in France."

Well, getting back to the game, Ukiah had scored three runs without the semblance of a hit and Whitlow who had been pitching a gilt-edge article of ball was completely thrown down by his team mates.

In the tenth Ukiah scored a run on two hits and an error which was the game.

If ever a pitcher deserved to win a ball game it was Ted Whitlow, and it was enough to tear the heart out of anyone the way his team mates fell down behind him in that unlucky eighth. He never complained though and after the game he still had his smile which won the admiration of the fans.

Palucci played a star game at short gathering in everything and also getting two bingles.

Dresel and Stockwell did not play their usual good game, but next Sunday they promise to make up for all their miscues.

Van Dyke, Ukiah's lanky twirler, deceived all our heavy hitters with his baffling underhand delivery. He struck out seventeen of our champions and only allowed five hits. Another game has been arranged with this team for next month and Sonoma is going up to win or die in the attempt.

Tomorrow the St. Helena team will journey to Sonoma to play the local boys. The game will be called at 2:30 sharp.
